Shaw	Robert		1829	1907	1865-1874	In 1856, during the revivals held by Rev John Todd and the members of the Congregational Church, Robert Shaw was been converted and had espoused the cause of the church as avidly as he engaged in politics or business. In a year or two, he began to preach, working his way along the line of study, as per the rules of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection, to which he belonged. He was ordained a few years later, and served his local church as pastor for several years, never being deserted because he lacked interest. But, being a politician and a lawyer, he sometimes offended portions of the people so they did not go to hear him for a time. But it was the vanquished that stayed away and it was usually disastrous to be in opposition.

Barnes	Henry or Harvey	H	1802	1879	1870-1871	At a special meeting of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Sept 8, 1871, called by John Lapell and Mitchell Sabattis for the purpose of deliberating on the subject of dismissing Rev.
